1. In the following excerpt from Wuthering Heights Catherine describes a dream she had. Analyze her dream and what it reflects in light of Victorian domestic ideals. Also, discuss feminist views with regards to the excerpt.

If I were in heaven, Nelly, I should be extremely miserable. ... I dreamt, once, that I was there ... heaven did not seem to be my home; and I broke my heart with weeping to come back to earth; and the angels were so angry that they flung me out, into the middle of the heath on the top of Wuthering Heights; where I woke sobbing for joy.

2. Evil is a main theme in Stevenson's 'The Beach of Falesá.' Discuss the theme of evil and its treatment through discussing specific characters in the work. Examine the different ways the depiction of evil offers social criticism. Support your answer with specific examples from the work.
