Number of Exam Pages: 3 (including this cover sheet)	Time Allowed: 2 hours

INSTRUCTION

There are TWO sections in this exam paper:

1. You are required to answer TWO questions from Section 1, and ONE question from Section 2.
2. Answers in Section 1 should be in the form of short answers.
3. Answers in section 2 should be in standard essay format: Start with a thesis, end with a conclusion, define all important terms, and provide specific and appropriate examples. Analyze and discuss the examples.
4. Edit your answers, paying attention to grammar, punctuation, and spelling.
5. Cross out any notes you make which you do not want to be considered.
6. It is also necessary to refer to relevant critical essays to support your analysis.

Question 2: CLOSE READING

5. Analyze the excerpt below from Anthony Browne's Voices in the Park focusing on Charles' initial hesitation and the subsequent shift in his perspective. What does this reveal of the ingrained societal expectations about gender roles?

"D'you wanna come on the slide?" a voice asked. It was a girl, unfortunately, but I went anyway. She was brilliant on the slide, she went really fast. I was amazed.
