Love's Philosophy

The fountains mingle with the river

And the rivers with the ocean,
The winds of heaven mix for ever
With a sweet emotion;
Nothing in the world is single;
All things by a law divine
In one spirit meet and mingle.
Why not I with thine?—

by Percy Bysshe Shelley

Which literary text studied this semester had the most significant impact on you? Elaborate in detail, drawing on specific elements from the text. You may choose from any genre covered this semester: fiction, poetry, or drama.

Question 2:

In what way(s) do you consider Ibsen's Doll's House a feminist play? Explain your answer providing examples from the play to support your argument.

Question 3:

Discuss the relationship between the artist and the model "In an Artist's Studio" by Christina Rossetti. Support your discussion with references from the poem.

In an Artist's Studio

by CHRISTINA ROSSETTI

One face looks out from all his canvases,
One selfsame figure sits or walks or leans:
We found her hidden just behind those screens,
That mirror gave back all her loveliness.
A queen in opal or in ruby dress,
A nameless girl in freshest summer-greens,
A saint, an angel — every canvas means
The same one meaning, neither more or less.
He feeds upon her face by day and night,
And she with true kind eyes looks back on him,
Fair as the moon and joyful as the light:
Not wan with waiting, not with sorrow dim;
Not as she is, but was when hope shone bright;
Not as she is, but as she fills his dream.
