Arab Open University
FACULTY OF LANGUAGE STUDIES

L201A
Worlds of English (I)
All Branches - Main
Final Exam

2024-2025 /Fall
Date:8 Jan. 2025
1:00 – 4:00

Number of Exam Pages: 7 including this cover sheet)	Time Allowed: 3 hours

NSTRUCTION

1. Use answer booklet for your answers.

2. Clearly write the number of the question which you have decided to answer.

3. Use the overleaf for your drafts.

4. Choose 5 out of the 8 terms from Part A. Provide examples where appropriate.

5. Answer all questions in Part B

5. Choose 2 out of 3 essay questions from part C. Use an appropriate essay format with a goo ntroduction and conclusion. The word count is 200 – 250 words.

. Return this question sheet with your answer booklet. Note that any notes on the question shee ill not be considered when grading.

AOU EGYPT

CamScanner

Part A: (15 marks)

Question 1:

Choose FIVE of the terms listed below and provide short notes on the terms you choose (30-50 words). Provide illustrative examples, as relevant (3 points each).

1) Phonology
2) A global language
3) Isoglosses
4) The Great Vowel Shift
5) Dialect levelling
6) Linguistic globalization
7) Cultural homogeneity
8) Glocalisation

AOU EGYPT

Part B: (15 marks)

True or False and Multiple Choice (1 mark each)

1. The British colonial process generally followed a sequence of colonization, political incorporation, and national reaction (true or False?)

2. Settlement Colonization typically involved the establishment of large-scale plantations using enslaved or indentured labor. (true or False?)

3. Plantation Colonization, such as in Jamaica and Barbados, was characterized by the replacement of indigenous populations with African slaves for agricultural production. (true or False?)

4. What term best describes the process by which one nation establishes control over another territory, often through military, political, or economic means?

A) Internal colonialism

CamScanner

B) Colonization

C) Nationalism

D) Globalization

5. Which form of colonization primarily involved the establishment of permanent colonies by colonizers, often leading to the displacement of indigenous populations?

A) Exploitation Colonization

B) Settlement Colonization

C) Plantation Colonization

D) Resource Colonization

6. What is the primary difference between Exploitation and Plantation Colonization?

A) Exploitation Colonization involves using local labor for agricultural production, while Plantation Colonization uses local labor for resource extraction.

B) Exploitation Colonization focuses on resource extraction, while Plantation Colonization involves large-scale agricultural estates using enslaved labor.

C) Exploitation Colonization involves settlement of the colonizers, while Plantation Colonization does not.

D) Plantation Colonization results in permanent cultural change, while Exploitation does not.

7. Which of the following best describes the linguistic phenomenon of 'Pidgin' languages?

A) Fully developed languages with native speakers

B) Simplified languages used for communication between speakers of different languages

C) Dialects of a single language

D) Regional variations of English within Britain

8. What term refers to the process by which a pidgin language evolves into a more complex and stable language, often becoming a mother tongue for a community?

A) Pidginization

B) Creolization

C) Language Shift

D) Linguistic Imperialism

9. Postcolonialism as a field of study primarily focuses on:

A) The positive impacts of colonialism on the colonies

AOU EGYPT

CamScanner

B) The effects and legacies of colonialism after the colonial period ends

C) The preservation of colonial languages and cultures

D) The economic benefits of decolonization

10. Which of the following best describes the primary outcome of Settlement Colonization in places like North America and Australia?

A) Subjection of the local population with indirect rule

B) Displacement of indigenous populations through the establishment of new settler communities

C) Introduction of large-scale agricultural plantations

D) Emergence of new hybrid languages

11. Which type of British colonization involved indirect rule and often led to the subjugation of local populations, as seen in Nigeria, Cameroon, and India?

A) Settlement Colonization

B) Exploitation Colonization

C) Plantation Colonization

D) Resource Colonization

12. Which type of British colonization was characterized by the replacement of local populations with imported labor for large-scale agricultural plantations, as seen in Barbados and Jamaica?

A) Settlement Colonization

B) Exploitation Colonization

C) Plantation Colonization

D) Mercantilist Colonization

13. Which of the following is a key linguistic consequence of Exploitation Colonization, especially in cases involving indirect rule?

A) Development of a complex creole language

B) English becomes the primary language of administration and education

C) The displacement of local languages through direct settler influence

D) Creation of a new hybrid language formed from colonial and indigenous languages

AOU EGYPT

CamScanner

14. Which of the following is an example of a situation in which English became the dominant language as a result of the settlement and displacement of indigenous populations, particularly in the U.S. and Australia?

A) Nigeria under British rule

B) The colonization of Barbados

C) The establishment of colonies in North America and Australia

D) The British administration of Malaysia

15. Which of the following was NOT one of the primary types of British colonization that contributed to English becoming a global language?

A) Settlement Colonization

B) Exploitation Colonization

C) Surrogate Colonization

D) Plantation Colonization

AOU EGYPT

Part C: (20 marks)

Choose TWO questions to answer, using around 250 word per answer. (10 marks each)

Question C1 : How did British colonialism shape the spread and evolution of the English language, and what were the linguistic and social impacts in different colonial settings?

Question C2: Discuss the development of varieties of English in the inner, outer and expanding circles in relation to the historical, geographical and social contexts. Explain through appropriate examples.

Question C3: What key factors contributed to the transformation of English from a colonial language to a global lingua franca, and how have these factors shaped its role in the modern world?

End of questions

CamScanner