ideals. Discuss some of the feminist views that provide insight into Catherine's representation.

If I were in heaven, Nelly, I should be extremely miserable. ... I dreamt, once, that I was there ... heaven did not seem to be my home; and I broke my heart with weeping to come back to earth; and the angels were so angry that they flung me out, into the middle of the heath on the top of Wuthering Heights; where I woke sobbing for joy.

2. Evil is a main theme in Stevenson's The Beach of Falesá, and Doyle's The Sign of the Four. Discuss the theme of evil and its treatment through discussing specific characters in the works. Examine the different ways the depiction of evil offers social criticism. Support your answer from the works.
