ction No. _____

Name: .....
ID: .....

AOU
الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arab Open University

Arab Open University
FACULTY OF LANGUAGE STUDIES
EL330
Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL)
All Branches
Backup Final Exam
2023-2024 /Fall
Date: 4 Jan. 2025
9:30 – 11:30

ıber of Exam Pages: 9 luding this cover sheet)	Time Allowed: 2 hours

TRUCTION

e are TWO sections in this exam paper:
are required to answer ALL the sections.
ction 1, answer practical questions on the learned skills for learned TEFL approaches/strategies.
ction 2, answer TWO theoretical questions on how to apply some TEFL approaches and strategies in ooms: start with an introduction, develop a well-written body paragraph, and end with a conclusion. you finish writing your essay, edit and proofread it paying attention to grammar, punctuation, and ng.
out any notes you make which you do not want to be considered.
e 10 minutes for reading through the whole paper and making the appropriate selection of ons.

Question Number	Minutes	Mark allocated (per question)	Earned Mark	Marker's Initials & Signature
on I: Practical Focus	40	20
on II: Theoretical Focus	80	30
Total in Figures		50
Total in Letters	120 Minutes	Fifty Marks

s remarks:

.....
.....
.....
.....

NOT EXACT

CamScanner

1. Theoretical Focus: Answer ALL questions.

A. Choose the best answer from a, b, c or d: (10 marks: 1 point each)

1. Which of the following is NOT one of Anderson's (2009) three stages of listening comprehension?
   a. Perceptual processing
   b. Parsing
   c. Utilization
   d. Vocalization.
2. Why is it important to use both bottom-up and top-down techniques when teaching listening to young learners?
   a. To focus only on isolated language structures
   b. To help them develop strategies for top-down processing in the foreign language
   c. To avoid using real-life listening examples
   d. To increase their attention span.
3. What enhances listening comprehension more for kindergarteners and first graders during storytelling?
   a. Showing pictures that depict the story
   b. Physical manipulation of objects described in the story
   c. Using only verbal descriptions without visual aids
   d. Having students act out the story
4. What is considered as the main mode of communication for most people?
   a. Writing
   b. Reading
   c. Listening
   d. Speaking
5. What is the purpose of activities before listening (warm-up stage)?
   a. To test students' knowledge
   b. To introduce new grammar rules
   c. To activate prior knowledge and prepare students for the listening task
   d. To assess students' speaking skills

FOUEGYPT

CamScanner

6. What is a "Running Dictation" activity?
    a. A game where students run around the classroom
    b. An activity where students write while running
    c. A collaborative listening and speaking activity involving running and dictation
    d. A race to find spelling mistakes in a text
7. How should speaking activities be sequenced?
    a. From independent to controlled practice
    b. From controlled to independent practice
    c. Always maintaining the same level of difficulty
    d. Randomly alternating between different types of activities.
8. Which of the following is NOT one of the five initial literacy steps children go through?
    a. Awareness and exploration
    b. Conventional reading and writing
    c. Advanced literary analysis
    d. Experimenting with reading and writing
9. Which of the following is NOT typically a pre-reading activity?
    a. Taking a picture walk through the story
    b. Predicting what a story will be about
    c. Paraphrasing at several places in the text
    d. Discussing titles and subtitles
10. What is the primary reason why English teachers of young learners need to develop a comprehensive classroom management plan?
    a. To increase their own comfort level in the classroom
    b. To keep learners engaged and on task
    c. To impress school administrators
    d. To reduce their workload

AOU EGYPT

CamScanner

B. Read the following sentences and fill in the blanks using the word(s) in the box below. (10 marks: 1 mark each)

product-based / process-based / Top-down / bottom-up / inductive / deductive / skimming / scanning / productive / receptive / guided / controlled / routines / contexts / glossaries / respect /

1. Listening and reading are considered _____ skills in the process of language acquisition.
2. During a _____ activity students have limited freedom and need to follow the provided instructions.
3. Setting up _____ creates a stable atmosphere that supports learning and limits distractions.
4. In the _____ method to reading, readers activate their prior knowledge to anticipate the text's content.
5. To support comprehension, teachers can provide _____, which are explanations or translations of difficult words and phrases within a text.
6. Textual analysis skills are critical for understanding and organizing information when reading non-fiction texts, such as skimming and _____.
7. In a classroom setting, teachers can use the _____ approach, starting with particular examples and observations to help students build a general understanding of a concept.
8. Building vocabulary includes not only knowing word meanings but also understanding how they are used in different _____.
9. _____ writing focuses on the final written product, such as an essay or a report.
10. Establishing connections with students based on trust and mutual _____ helps to build a harmonious classroom atmosphere.

AQUEGYPT

CamScanner

1. Practical Focus: Answer TWO questions only

1. In a short essay (200-250 words) discuss the steps of language experience approach followed by the young learners to write a story. Support your answers with examples. (15 marks)

2. In a short essay (200-250 words) discuss reasons for including reading and writing in young learner classes. Support your answers with examples. (15 marks)

3. In a short essay (200-250 words) discuss the rules that teachers can use to manage the classroom climate effectively. (15 marks)

AOU EGYPT

CamScanner