Mini Case Study: Customer Service Officer

Scenario:
You are part of the Human Resources (HR) department at SmartLine, a retail company currently hiring a new Customer Service Officer. Below is the draft job description and person specification prepared by the store manager.

Job Description (Draft):
We need someone nice to help customers. The job is flexible. The person should be friendly and do whatever is needed at the front desk. Sometimes the work changes, and the person should be fast and always ready. There are no fixed tasks, and the person will report to whoever is available. We offer a fun environment and good vibes.

Person Specification (Draft):
"The candidate should be young, well-groomed, smiling all the time, and available on weekends. Must be friendly, talkative, and ready to deal with any customer. It is better if the person lives near the store."
