AOU
الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arab Open University
Faculty of Language Studies

Arab Open University
FACULTY OF LANGUAGE STUDIES

L201A
English in the World I
Main - All Branches
Final Exam

Fall 2025-2026
Date: 13 Jan. 2026
1:00 – 4:00

Number of Exam Pages: 5 (including this cover sheet)	Time Allowed: 3 hours

INSTRUCTION

1. Use answer booklet for your answers.
2. Clearly write the number of the question which you have decided to answer.
3. Use the overleaf for your drafts.
4. Choose 3 out of the 5 questions from Part A to answer using 100 words per answer. Provide examples where appropriate.
5. Choose 2 out of 3 essay questions to answer using 300 words per answer in Part B
6. Answer all MCQs in part C and explain your choice.
7. Return this question sheet with your answer booklet. Note that any notes on the question sheet will not be considered when grading.

CamScanner

Part A: (15 marks)

Choose THREE questions to answer using 100 words per each question. Provide illustrative examples, as relevant (5 points each: 3 for content and 2 for language).

A.1. Describe the characteristics of a pidgin language.

A.2. How is a global language defined in linguistics?

A.3. Give examples of implausible explanations for World English's rise.

A. 4. Describe glocalisation and provide an example.

A. 5. Compare inner-circle and outer-circle English varieties.

Part B: (26 marks)

Choose TWO questions to answer, using around 300 word per answer. (13 marks each – 10 for content & 3 for language)

B.1 What are the linguistic consequences of English's global spread?

B.2. What factors contributed to the rise of English as a global language?

B.3. How did the type of colonial experience influence the spread and function of English, and what were the resulting linguistic and societal outcomes in different colonial contexts?

Part C: (9 marks)

Answer all MCQs and explain your choice (0.5 mark for choice and 0.5 mark for explanation).

1. World Englishes research emphasizes

A) Only British English as the standard
B) The diversity and legitimacy of English varieties worldwide
C) The elimination of local influences on English

CamScanner

D) Teaching only inner-circle norms

2. English functions as a lingua franca primarily because:
A) It is the simplest language
B) It is spoken natively by everyone
C) It enables communication between speakers of different native languages
D) It has always been the most widely spoken language

3. Which of the following is a consequence of plantation colonization on language?
A) Development of pidgins and creoles
B) Complete adoption of European languages by all inhabitants
C) No contact between local languages
D) Creation of inner-circle English

4. In multilingual societies, English can:
A) Replace local languages entirely
B) Coexist with local languages through code-switching and borrowing
C) Only be spoken by elites
D) Never borrow words from local languages

5. Which factor did NOT contribute to the rise of English globally?
A) Industrial revolution and scientific publications
B) British colonization
C) Universal simplicity of English grammar
D) American cultural and economic influence

6. Inner-circle English countries include:
A) Singapore, India
B) UK, USA
C) Nigeria, Philippines
D) Japan, China

CamScanner

7. Code-switching occurs when:
A) English becomes a creole
B) Pidgins simplify grammar
C) English dominates all local languages
D) Speakers alternate between languages within conversation

8. Which type of colonialism involved large-scale European settlement?
A) Plantation
B) Exploitation
C) Settler
D) Trading post

9. Glocalisation refers to:
A) English replacing all local languages
B) Local adaptation of global English forms
C) English becoming a pidgin
D) Monolingual societies

End of Exam

CamScanner