AOU
الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arab Open University

Faculty of Language Studies

L201B

English in the World II

MTA – Main
All Branches
Fall 2025-2026
Date: 20 Nov. 2025
12:00 – 2:00

Number of Exam Pages: 4 (including this cover sheet)	Time Allowed: 2 hours

Instructions:

Use the answer booklet for your answers. Return this question sheet with your answer booklet.

re are Three sections in this exam paper: Part A, Part B and Part C t A requires you to choose 2 questions to answer. Think, explain and provide examples in your h correct answer is worth 5 marks (2 out of 5).

B requires you to choose 1 question and answer it using 300 words essay (1 out of 3).

C offers no choice. You need to choose the correct answer and explain your choice to get the ks (1 for correct choice and 1 for correct explanation) (5 out of 5) s out any notes you make which you do not want to be considered.

ote 10 minutes for reading through the whole paper and making the appropriate selection of tions.

CamScanner

Part A: (10 marks – 5 each)

Choose 2 questions to answer using 100 words. Think, explain and provide examples to support your discussion.

1. In what ways do Communities of Practice influence the development of language norms and identity among their members, and how can this concept explain variations in language use?
2. How does the Accommodation Theory explain the adjustments speakers make during interaction, and what social factors determine whether individuals converge or diverge linguistically?
3. How does the concept of linguistic capital help us understand the power dynamics involved in language use, and in what ways does it affect social mobility?
4. How do terms of address reflect social hierarchies and cultural norms, and what impact do they have on power relations within communication?
5. How do literacy practices vary across different communities? Illustrate using appropriate examples.

Part B: (10 marks)

Choose one question to answer using a 300-word essay. Use appropriate examples

1. How do children use hypothesis testing during first language acquisition to experiment with language rules, what does this reveal on the development of cognitive aspect and how does interaction and feedback help them refine their understanding of their native language?

2. How do terms of address reflect cultural norms of politeness, and in what ways do differences in these terms influence cross-cultural communication and social relationships?

CamScanner

3. How do adjacency pairs structure conversational interaction, and what do preferred and dis-preferred responses reveal about social roles and cultural expectations?

Part C: (10 marks – 2 marks each)

Choose the correct answer and explain your choice (1 mark for choice & 1 mark for explanation)

1. According to Goffman, what does "face" primarily refer to in communication?

A) Physical appearance

B) Social identity and self-esteem

C) The topic of conversation

D) The tone of voice

2. Literacy practice refers to:

A) Reading and writing only in school settings

B) The ways in which reading and writing are used in everyday social contexts

C) Memorizing grammar rules

D) Writing formal essays only

3. Conversation analysis primarily studies:

A) Written communication only

B) The structure and patterns of spoken interaction

C) Body language only

D) Grammar of formal writing

4. Multimodal literacy involves:

A) Reading printed books only

B) Using multiple modes like images, sound, and text to communicate meaning

CamScanner

C) Writing essays only

D) Listening to speeches without visual aids

5. What is the key difference between linguistic competence and communicative competence?

A) Linguistic competence includes social rules of language use, while communicative competence only covers grammar.

B) Linguistic competence refers to knowledge of language rules, while communicative competence includes the ability to use language appropriately in social contexts.

C) Linguistic competence involves speaking fluently, while communicative competence involves writing correctly.

D) There is no difference; both terms mean the same thing.

Good Luck

AOU TEMA

CamScanner