PART A – CASE STUDY

IKEA's Strategic Focus on Cost Leadership and Global Expansion

IKEA, founded in 1943, is one of the world's largest furniture retailers. Despite being in a highly competitive industry with numerous local and international players, IKEA became a global leader in low-cost, self-assembly furniture.

Cost Leadership IKEA kept costs low by designing flat-pack furniture that reduced shipping and storage expenses. The company also negotiated favorable deals with suppliers and reduced waste in manufacturing.

Efficiency in Supply Chain IKEA created a robust and efficient supply chain, allowing it to maintain low prices and high availability of products.

Unique Customer Experience IKEA turned furniture shopping into a unique in-store experience by setting up model rooms, offering food courts, and creating an enjoyable, family-friendly atmosphere.

Global Expansion with Local Adaptation IKEA expanded globally while adapting its product range to suit local tastes and needs, ensuring it could meet different consumer demands in various regions.

ANSWER ALL OF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS

QUESTION 01 – 5 MARKS

Show Ikea management strategy which allows the organization to global expansion.

QUESTION 02 – 15 MARKS

How do the three elements of globalization, innovation, and sustainability impact your understanding of strategy?

PART B – ESSAY QUESTION
